

Highfield Level 3 Award

Legionella – Control for Responsible Persons

COURSE OVERVIEW

First Environment is registered with the Legionella Control Association for the provision of training services.

Duration: One Day

The Highfield Level 3 award provides learners with the knowledge and understanding of the risks associated with legionella bacteria and legionellosis. Understanding how legislation and codes of practice can support the management of legionella bacteria and understand how to control the risks associated with legionella bacteria.

Certificate of Attendance

This pathway is offered within this qualification for nominated responsible persons.

Marked Assessment

The awareness training will provide an overview of why Legionella is hazardous and where it presents a risk. Relevant legislation and typical control actions and responsibilities of the nominated responsible person.

Group or Individuals

Successful learners will have to demonstrate knowledge and understanding across the breadth of the qualification syllabus.

Held at Your Site of Choice

The training presentation normally runs for a full day. The sessions are suitable for groups up to twelve persons.

Remote Learning Available

Training sessions can be held on the site of your choice.

Q&A Session Included

The aim of the training is to support a role in the workplace for personnel who have been nominated responsible person for the control of Legionella bacteria in the workplace.

Refresh Every 3 Years

Location	Dates	Registration from	Course Time	Total Places	Cost
Central London	Wednesday 27 th July 2022	9am	9.30am – 5.30pm	10	£400 +VAT

To book a place or to speak with one of our team call us today on 01543 728 202 or contact us here info@first-environment.co.uk